District of Arizona

RE: CHAPTER 13 DISCHARGE

CASE NAME: JOHN MCLOUGHLIN
CASE NUMBER: 2:13-bk-14029-DPC

TO: JOHN MCLOUGHLIN

To obtain your Chapter 13 Discharge, you must complete and file the attached certificate.

The chapter 13 trustee has filed with the Bankruptcy Court a Notice that you have completed all payments under your chapter 13 plan and are, therefore, entitled to have your chapter 13 discharge entered. Before a discharge can be entered, the attached Certificate of Eligibility for Chapter 13 Discharge must be completed and filed with the Bankruptcy Court.

Your discharge can be entered after this Certificate is filed and provided that you have also completed an instructional course concerning personal financial management from a United States Trustee approved agency and have filed a certificate of completion for that course. This is a separate course from the Credit Counseling you received before you filed bankruptcy.

If the attached Certificate is not filed, your case may be closed without a discharge being entered. Once the case is closed, if you seek to reopen the case so that you can file this Certificate and have your discharge entered, please be advised that you will be required to pay a reopening fee of $235.00.
